Introducing Jonas Wagell's JWDA Collection for Audo in red Verona travertine.

Striking red Verona travertine amplifies the sculptural quality and timeless presence of Swedish designer Jonas Wagell's lighting series for Audo, lending natural warmth and tactile depth to the JWDA Table Lamp and the JWDA Floor Lamp.

Characterised by a richly textured surface and intricate veining, the distinct red travertine anchors the designs with natural elegance, creating a visually compelling contrast to the smooth opal glass shade that feels both grounding and inviting. The natural inclusions and variations within the red stone lend each lamp a unique character, while making it adaptable to a range of interior styles.

On the JWDA Floor Lamp, the warm, organic feel of the stone beautifully offsets with the sleek stem in either powder-coated steel or solid brass. The JWDA Table Lamp continues this refined approach; the stone base accentuates the design's balanced silhouette and sculptural charm for a bold presence wherever it is placed. A choice of bronzed or brushed brass dimmer switches on both designs provides nuanced control of light intensity.

About the Designer

Jonas Wagell is a Swedish architect and designer born in 1973. Wagell is widely revered for his modern product and furniture design comprising soft, minimalist shapes with a welcoming expression. An alumnus of the prestigious schools Konstfack University College of Arts and Crafts and Berghs School of Communication in Stockholm, as well as Parsons School of Design in New York City. He is trained in graphics and print, project management, communication, furniture design and architecture.

Studio JWDA was founded in 2008 and is located in the Old Town of Stockholm, whilst recent clients and collaborative relations that stretch from Scandinavia to China, Italy and North America. Today the work is primarily focused on product and furniture design, but occasionally the studio also consults with art and design direction.
